

From: Steven McDonald
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 3:51pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I think that the proposed settlement is a bad idea. It does not go far enough in punishing Microsoft for harming consumer choice. It does not take the appropriate steps in preventing Microsoft from continuing their anticompetitive practices. As an example, Microsoft has a history of abusing their monopoly power to force OEMs to sell only Microsoft products, and the settlement allows them to continue this practice.

Thank you for your time,

Steven McDonald
Redwood City, CA